

Chapter 20/21

1. What specific words does the author use to describe snow in the first few pages of this chapter?
How does her description change later in the chapter?
2. What do William and Kit learn about each other's life priorities when they finally get to talk?
What is the result of this conversation?
3. What does Kit decide to do near the end of the chapter?
4. What happens when John returns?
5. How has the relationship between John Holbrook and Reverend Bulkeley changed?
6. In a few words, how would you describe the well-matched priorities and personalities of the three new couples, Judith & William, Mercy & John, and Kit & Nat?
7. What happened to the site where Hannah's house had been?
8. How has the past year developed and proved Nat's and Kit's character so that they are more prepared for a lifetime together?

Chapter 20/21

1. What specific words does the author use to describe snow in the first few pages of this chapter?
How does her description change later in the chapter?
2. What do William and Kit learn about each other's life priorities when they finally get to talk?
What is the result of this conversation?
3. What does Kit decide to do near the end of the chapter?
4. What happens when John returns?
5. How has the relationship between John Holbrook and Reverend Bulkeley changed?
6. In a few words, how would you describe the well-matched priorities and personalities of the three new couples, Judith & William, Mercy & John, and Kit & Nat?
7. What happened to the site where Hannah's house had been?
8. How has the past year developed and proved Nat's and Kit's character so that they are more prepared for a lifetime together?

Chapter 20/21

1. What specific words does the author use to describe snow in the first few pages of this chapter?
How does her description change later in the chapter?
2. What do William and Kit learn about each other's life priorities when they finally get to talk?
What is the result of this conversation?
3. What does Kit decide to do near the end of the chapter?
4. What happens when John returns?
5. How has the relationship between John Holbrook and Reverend Bulkeley changed?
6. In a few words, how would you describe the well-matched priorities and personalities of the three new couples, Judith & William, Mercy & John, and Kit & Nat?
7. What happened to the site where Hannah's house had been?
8. How has the past year developed and proved Nat's and Kit's character so that they are more prepared for a lifetime together?