Dessert: Complete at the end of the novel

Make a courtroom sketch of a main character, depicting the character's emotions during this part in the plot. The court room sketch must be in color. Then pretend to be a member of the court and write a paragraph describing the majority opinion/concurring opinion (agreeing with the verdict of the case). If you did not agree with the court's opinion you may add the dissenting opinion (disagreeing with the verdict of the case). See attached paper for examples. The format of the opinions must be:

- Background: History of case or relevant facts to the case
- Questions: State the law that the defendant is on trial for breaking.
- Analysis: Precedent (previous cases that have been trialed in the same law) and discussion of the law and background to the case.
- Answer: The conclusion as to if the defendant is guilty or not.

Court of Court Case Chapter 19 (Majority Opinion):

Directions: To complete the Majority Opinion of the court case fill in the blank parts of the lines using the non-bold words underneath as a guide.
